GENERAL NOTICES

DAYSRING

The children's magazine Dayspring is in need of your contributions. Material can either be directly on the Faith or just generally interesting. If you don't have any ready material or ideas to share at this moment but are willing to be asked to illustrate a short story or write on a particular subject occasionally, this would also be greatly appreciated.

If you would like to help to make this magazine a treasure trove for the children in the United Kingdom, please contact: Jackie Mehrabi at dayspring@bahai.org.uk

Bus from Arnos Grove station to the Guarian's Resting Place

The custodian of the Guardian's Resting Place would like to inform the friends that there is a new bus running from Arnos Grove underground station towards the cemetery. The number 382 bus to Southgate stops at Arnos Grove station then comes to the road on which the New Southgate cemetery is located. The second, third and fourth stops are for anyone who wants to visit the cemetery. Please note: do not take 382 to Finchley, it must display the name "Southgate".
