

AMERICA'S TOWN MEETING OF THE AIR COMES TO HOWARD UNIVERSITY

On recent Town Meeting of the Air, President Mordecai Johnson of Howard university and Prof. Doxey Wilkerson were debaters on affirmative side of the question: "Is There a Basis for Spiritual Unity in the World Today?" For the negative, speakers were: Prof. Alain Locke and Acting Dean Leon Ramsom.

Upper left: General scene as Professor Wilkerson speaks.

Top center: Prof. Leon Ramsom said: "Being a realist, I see no basis for spiritual unity in the world today."

Top right: Standing with George V. Denny, founder and moderator of the popular radio show, conducted last week at Howard, is President Mordecai Johnson, answering a question for a member of the audience.

Lower left: Audience asked questions of speakers as main feature of broadcast. John Davis, of National Negro congress, addresses his question to Mordecai Johnson.

Center: "A question for Dr. Johnson" was a familiar phrase. An unidentified member of the audience asks "a hard one." Gene Homes lends his support to questioner.

Right: Professor Locke answers question this time. Prof. Doxey Wilkerson gives the question a great deal of thought.—McNeill Photo.